Dr. Betty Cleckley
Chairperson, Commission on Blacks
2014 Lake Avenue
Knoxville, Tennessee 37916

Dear Betty:

Though I have enjoyed much of the activities of the Commission on Blacks, and have found the sessions with campus administrators informative, I regret that I can no longer serve on this body. My schedule for the next twelve months will be so demanding to serve on the Commission with any degree of consistency. Since the work of this body dictates that its members be active and dedicated, it would be in the best interest of the Commission to utilize persons who are less restricted than myself.

Sincerely,

Mr. Marvin Peek
Director of Black Studies
